

What to expect with the new civil system

Before October 12th, 2021

How do I...?

After October 12th, 2021

Fax filing & e-Delivery: Civil documents can not be fax filed or submitted by e-Delivery after Friday, 10/8 at 4:00pm. Instead, you can e-file! Fax filing will continue to be available for Family and Probate filings. Learn more on the Fax filing webpage.

File Documents

e-filing: Civil e-filing includes general civil, small claims, unlawful detainers, civil harassment restraining orders, and civil appeals case types. Civil e-filing is permissive until January 1, 2022. Learn more on the civil e-filing webpage.

DomainWeb: Civil cases will no longer be available via DomainWeb as of Thursday, 10/7 at 5:00pm. Instead, you will go to the new eCourt Public Portal starting on Tuesday, 10/12. DomainWeb will continue to provide remote public access for Probate cases. Learn more on the DomainWeb webpage.

Access Case Records, Calendars, or Documents

eCourt Public Portal: View civil case records, calendars, and documents through searches, and calendar reports. View Direct Calendar and Civil Complex Courtroom information, access the ADR portal by visiting the eCourt Public Portal site. Parties will have access to their case, even confidential cases.

Email the Department: After Friday, 10/8, do not email the department to reserve a hearing. Instead, register on the Public Portal and make your reservation online! Learn more about the new Case Reservation System on the Case Reservation page on the eCourt Public Portal.

Reserve a Hearing

Case Reservation System: The Court Reservation System (CRS) is now mandated for participating civil courtrooms. Parties utilize CRS to make and manage their reservations. Learn more on the Case Reservation page on the eCourt Public Portal.

Email the Department: After Friday, 10/8, do not access tentative rulings via DomainWeb or phone, nor contest by emailing the department. Instead, contest a tentative ruling via the new eCourt Public Portal. Learn more about tentative rulings on the Tentative Rulings webpage.

Contest a Tentative Ruling

Contest Ruling via Public Portal: The Public Portal will allow users to view and contest a Tentative Ruling through the portal. The Tentative Rulings webpage will be updated by Tuesday, 10/12 with step-by-step instructions.